III. Vision

Dali aims to build up the DaliNFT platform to support art creators worldwide to make their paintings become NFT on Binance Smart Chain, allowing them to conduct auctions and transactions globally. DaliNFT will be a pioneer in bringing real values to life in the NFT space. DaliNFT is committed to registering world-class artworks as NFTs on-chain.

IV. Problem

NFT is now a hot trend in the Blockchain market; however, it is still very strange and hard to understand for most of the people, especially traditional artists who cannot access this technology due to their expertise. Besides, there haven't been any mechanisms bringing them closer to NFT.

Digital paintings will be tokenized as NFT and sold at unbelievable prices which are not proven, causing a great problem to this new field.

Organizing traditional art auctions still has many limitations such as difficulties and risks when taking paintings to the auction halls, complex procedures and processes, wasting time and money, fake paintings, payment disputation, IP violations, etc.

The number of participants is limited because auctions are held locally and there are geographical barriers as well. Especially, the Covid-19 pandemic is preventing the globalization trend. Although we hold auctions online, it's still hard to prove the authorization without the application of Blockchain.

V. Solution

DaliNFT is designed with a user-friendly interface. Besides, our team will directly support users to access NFT in the simplest and fastest manner.

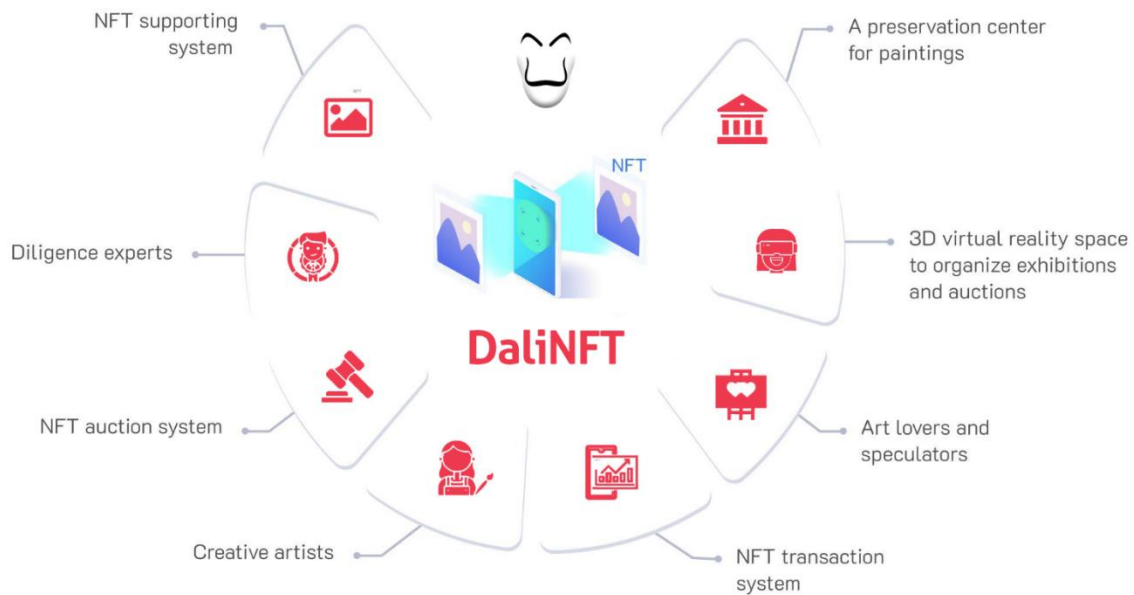

DaliNFT will establish storage and preservation centers at certain places. After the paintings are verified and stored at centers, DaliNFT will create NFT for each of them with the same values as the real ones, helping NFT works keep their real values.

All the works can be auctioned online without being taken to the auction halls because the real ones are stored at the centers and stucked with NFT codes. Besides, authorization becomes simpler thanks to applying Blockchain to auction transactions and transfers. Everyone in the world can join the auctions.
